Songtext Kaputte Welt

von Das Zerbrochene

Verse 1:
Imagine a world, a world bounded by fear
This world we live in is not yet clear
We chose to live in this world full of pain and grief
Scared to make a move so it’s all just the same

Chorus:
We will not be bounded by
What our hands and minds can do
We must think outside the box
For us to truly learn and adapt to things, ooh

Verse 2:
Make yourself be heard, make yourself feel
Make yourself be at one
It’s all we need, it’s all there is
We can make this world a better place

Chorus:
We will not be bounded by
What our hands and minds can do
We must think outside the box
For us to truly learn and adapt to things, ooh

Bridge:
If only we can reach out our hands
If only we can feel and share our love
If only we can do something right
If only we can unite and be one
